Reimbursement terms

In the present context, during which health measures introduced to protect all citizens from COVID-19 must be observed over a longer term, the Government of Quebec has requested the cancellation of all indoor and outdoor festivals and cultural events scheduled to take place in Quebec over the period extending until August 31, 2020. Given this situation, the Canimex Canadian Music Competition is being transformed into a “non-competitive” edition (not open to the public).

The context in which this “transformed” edition of the Canimex – Canadian Music Competition is being held takes into account the issues that may be affecting our entire community. This is why the educational benefits have been placed front and centre, with no scoring or ranking for this edition, so as to take some pressure off of our candidates. We are well aware that access to resources is not the same for everyone across the country: whether it’s access to an instrument, a teacher, an accompanist, or recording technology. Our key objective is to continue to give all of our participants privileged access to renowned pedagogues. This is why we strongly encourage you to take part in this edition that has been adapted to comply with current physical distancing requirements.

If you choose not to take part in this non-competitive edition, there are several avenues to explore regarding registration fees.

Please rest assured that we fully understand the extent to which the current situation is creating uncertainty on many levels and we will be diligent in offering you a refund, should that be your final decision. If your situation allows it, we would like to point out the exceptional nature of the situation we are dealing with, while reiterating how important your support is at this time in which many non-profit organizations, including the CMC, are also experiencing a period of uncertainty.

Here are the options we are able to offer you:

1. Convert part or all of your $300 registration fee into a donation (an official receipt for tax purposes will be issued)
2. Carry over your $300 registration fee to 2021
3. Obtain a full refund for your $300 registration fee

Of course, we remain available to answer your questions. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 1-877-879-1959 or info@cmcnational.com
